Most Unique Safety Project and Safety Hero of the Year Categories

During the application process it is critical for you to include all supporting documentation and to ensure that your application is anonymous. This includes removing all reference to the company name and logos blocked out on any submitted images.

What will the judges be looking for in these categories? They will be looking at the question responses or the essay to see how the application demonstrates:

- Leadership
- Innovation/creativity
- Commitment/dedication
- Establishes a safety culture through communication and motivation

Important Information:

- These categories require a blind application, please refrain from providing any information that will alert the judges to who the company or nominee is.
- Please ensure ALL questions are answered in full.
- See the following pages for more details on each category.

Most Unique Safety Project

Please ensure the following additional information is included within your submission:

- Difficulty of the project
- Timeliness and effectiveness of the project
- Compliance with Cal/OSHA
- Specific accomplishments, progress and performance

Awarded to a UCON member company whose 2022 project presented a difficult, problematic or unusual safety challenge.

1. Tell us about a 2022 project(s) that required outside of the box thinking for safety. Explain the challenge(s) and what you/your safety team did to overcome. This category focuses on a project completed during calendar year 2022 that presented a particularly difficult, problematic or unusual safety challenge. Applicants should detail the various safety aspects of the project; why it required a creative or resourceful approach to resolve them; additional efforts to procure equipment, PPE, engineering or other specialized expertise; employee/supervisory training needed to address the unique requirements to safely execute the project; extra coordination/collaboration with the general contractors/subcontractors; and, any special challenges to endure compliance with applicable Cal/OSHA regulations.
2. This is a blind application, please refrain from providing any information that will alert the judges to who the company is.
3. You will have the opportunity to upload any additional documents and/or photos that could assist in the judging process.
