FaceWare Pro LED Light Therapy Device: Inspired by Dr. Gross's professional in-office lasers, this medical-grade mask harnesses a full spectrum of therapeutic red and blue light. The patented design includes a combination of 100 LED lights in red mode and 62 LED lights in blue mode, working together to smooth wrinkles, and firm skin, diminish discoloration, and clear acne for a beautiful, youthful complexion. You can choose from three-light treatment options—red light therapy, blue light therapy, or red and blue light therapy. The red lights stimulate the natural production of collagen and elastin to reduce wrinkles, sunspots, sun damage, and redness; blue lights help destroy P. acnes bacteria and prevent future breakouts; and the dual red and blue lights target wrinkles and acne at the same time. Experience a fading of wrinkles in as early as two weeks and begin seeing an improvement in acne within days.	$600
